- 1 Incredible group of three paintings on fabric attributed to Lt Caspar Collins (1844-1865), an Indian fighter with the 11th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry on the Wyoming frontier. With a copy of the book Caspar Collins - the Life and Exploits of an Indian Fighter of the Sixties, Agnes Spring, Columbia University Press, 1927. The paintings are on a heavy cotton type fabric, possibly a lightweight tent canvas. The first is 17 X 24 and has a large eagle holding a banner that reads "Platte Bridge". On the left shore of the river is a military settlement with buildings, wagons and an American flag. The second is "Fort Laramie" with numerous buildings, soldiers doing drill exercises, American flag, two Indians with lances in foreground, size also 17 X 24. The third is 13 X 19 and is a roster of "Co G 11th OVC", listing all 92 members including Collins himself as 2nd Lt. Each with decorative border of flowers, leaves, grapes, acorns, flags.

On July 26 1865 Lt. Collins went on a suicide mission from the Platte River fort, attempting to rescue a wagon train enroute to the fort. He was killed by a combined force of Cheyenne and Sioux. In November of 1865 Major Gen John Pope issued General Order No. 49, proclaiming the fort to be known thereafter as Fort Casper (he spelled it wrong), which eventually became Casper Wyoming.

The paintings are in generally excellent condition, with a bit of light waterstain in the borders. The book shows several other drawings by Collins, but his works were unsigned. Acquired in his hometown of Hillsboro, Ohio. An outstanding group of military art from the western frontier.

- 2 Extremely rare large cardboard bandbox depicting General Andrew Jackson in uniform beside his horse. Oval 15 X 18 X 12h. Condition generally very fine, with the typical light wear and dings around the edges. The plain inside of the rim has been reinforced a bit, thought it doesn't appear that it was necessary. The paper covering around the narrow edge of the cover also appears to be replaced, but the color match is excellent. A great box that I haven't seen before.
- 3 Great 4 1/4 pitcher with pink splash lustre rim and apple green ground. Oval cartouches on opposite sides depict famous naval battles "Enterprize and Boxer" and "United States and Macedonian". Appearance is perfect, but there is some superb restoration. My restorer is very good, and after he finished with this I can't tell what he did! Similar jugs in white creamware appear infrequently on the market, but the colored ground examples are very rare!
- 4 One of the very best Currier & Ives prints. Large folio "American Forest Scene - Maple Sugaring", dated 1856. Sight size 21 1/2 X 28 1/2 in nice custom frame 24 1/2 X 31 1/2. Good margins all around. The only flaws are a very minor bit of toning in the margins and a single short edge tear about 4" from the left on the top margin. This extends only 1/4" into the image. Conningham #157. Ranked as #2 in the Old Best 50, surpassed only by "Husking". #6 in the New Best 50. A superb print. As I recall another example brought $18-20,000 at auction a year or two ago (Skinners I think).
- 5 Exceptionally rare 1832 dated Jackson campaign ribbon. Jugate portraits Washington and Jackson. "The 100th Washington Anniversary - President US - Jackson - 1832". Sullivan - Fischer AJ-2. There probably aren't more than a half dozen Jackson ribbons in existence that can be documented to the election years. Excellent plus, some light creases & a couple of insignificant very faint water spots.
- 6 Very rare large poster issued a couple of years before Buffalo Bill's death, when his legendary foster son Johnny Baker took over leadership of the show. Portrait Cody at top "Let My Show Go On". Baker on white horse. 21 X 63 in custom frame 23 X 65. Three horizontal folds, possibly as issued. A couple insignificant tiny chips in white border. Excellent plus.
- 7 This piece is wonderful! Large 19" left handed fighting dagger known as a "blade breaker". While the thin blade rapier was the common personal fighting weapon, an accomplished swordsman would also use a dagger in his left hand. This uniquely designed weapon was intended to catch an opponents sword and break the blade. Deep cut notches, each with a tiny revolving triangular blade at the opening. All of these revolving blades are amazingly intact. Grip with steel wire wrap, faceted steel pommel. There is a deeply stamped makers mark on the ricasso, which is drawn in on the catalog photo beneath the pommel. This is nearly identical to the example on pg. 88 of Swords and Daggers by Wagner and owned by the Historical Museum in Dresden. That same example was also cataloged by Demmin in 1893, who placed it to the late 16th century. Generally superb condition, blade lightly cleaned.

- 8 Outstanding oil on canvas - John C Calhoun, 20 X 27 in gilt frame 25 X 32. Flag and globe to left, documents on table titled "Strict Construction", "Free Trade" and "The Sovereignty of the States". A couple of small minor scratches on wall at upper left, light scratch on table cloth. Otherwise the appearance is pristine, but some scattered restoration can be seen with a blacklight - it's very well done and invisible to the eye. Relined on original stretcher. A few small losses to raised gesso on frame.
- 9 One of my favorite pieces in the catalog. Charming watercolor 9 1/2 X 19 1/2 in nice custom frame (not shown). American arctic explorer David Brainard sits atop peak representing the top of the world, his location marked 83° 24'. On May 13, 1882 he reached the most northerly point attained by any explorer to that time. Note the great American flag kerchief. Below him are British and American Flags labeled Markham - Hall - Ross, commemorating the prior achievements of Sir Albert Hastings Markham, Charles Francis Hall, and either John or James Ross. Swirling cloud inscribed "Nil Desperandum" (Never Despair). Signed A Operti NY 85 (Albert J Operti, American, 1852-1927) Pristine.
- 10 Terrific 32" painted folk art sled, wood with iron front tow bar and iron sheathing on the wood rails. Large 12" scene "CONSTITUTION", showing battle between Constitution and Java (names on both ships). Crossed US flags above. Rear end inscribed ( ) HAND probably the name of the maker or the child he made it for. Scattered small paint losses as expected, the only significant wear being at the tail end to the left of and below the word HAND. One of the best sleds you will see.
- 11 Spectacular sixth plate daguerreotype of a Philadelphia fireman in parade dress. Stovepipe hat with the arms of Pennsylvania. Cape with initials PH (probably Philadelphia Hose). Long double breasted coat, trumpet in hand, wide leather belt with large buckle that reads DIRECTOR. Hat and cape with pale blue tinting, underbrim of hat tinted red. Accompanied by large 6" buckle with engraved and enameled lettering DIRECTOR. It first appears that this is the very buckle he is wearing, but close examination with a loupe shows minor differences in the letters. Superb condition (minor halo of tarnish).
- 12 A duplicate from my own collection. 8" Liverpool pitcher, portrait "Commodore Preble". Reverse with naval battle "Comm Preble's Squadron Attacking the City of Tripoli Aug 3 1804", 5 lines below with details of the battle. Excellent condition, no restoration. Has 1980 label from legendary dealers J & J May, Kensington Church Street, London.
- 13 Very rare firemans painted stovepipe parade hat. Sunburst design MONROE, reverse date 1823 (Monroe was President at the time). Top of crown with owners initials JF. Old but competent restoration around the top edge of the crown. Also about 1/4 of the thin black raised rolled edge of the brim has deteriorated (a minor fault). This is the second example seen of this hat. I sold another one about 20 years ago. That one was in superb condition, but as I recall it was over $10,000 back then! Fire collectors notwithstanding, Monroe related material is extremely difficult for political collectors to acquire.
- 14 Large size 75mm Martin Van Buren Indian Peace Medal struck in silver, 100% unconditionally guaranteed genuine. Condition about fine, with the honest wear that comes from having been worn for decades by a proud Chief. Attractive appearance without the serious dents, bends or deep gouges often seen on worn medals.
- 15 Exceptional California gold rush rarity. Spanish 8 reales counterstamped "F D Kohler & Co - 1849 - San Francisco", all in a rectangular box. Kohler issued several different unique ingots as California State Assayer in 1850, but only three items are known using this prepared 1849 San Francisco die. A Peruvian doubloon was sold by Kagins about 15 years ago for $12,500. If I remember correctly, that piece was previously in the Clifford Sale in the early 1980's. Coin is F-VF, counterstamp VF+. Small rim nick at 7:00, of no consequence on such a great rarity.

- 16 Rare Fillmore - Donelson silk printed entirely in red/wht/blue. Excellent plus, a couple small, minor very light spots of discoloration that some catalogs wouldn't even mention. I had one of these several years ago, and it sold instantly at $2,000. 1,850.
- 17 Outstanding 2½ Civil War child's mug. Eagle, flags, cannon, cannonballs. "King Cotton played out!" This is great! 750.
- 18 Exceedingly rare 2½ X 3½ trade card "Blount & Dawson - General Brokers - for the purchase and sale of Negroes and Other Property - Savannah, GA". Mentions their new jail for safekeeping of Negroes entrusted to them. Peripheral brownish discoloration as so often seen on these early coated stock cards. Fine. 3,500.
- 19 Autographed carte de visite John C. Breckinridge, boldly signed below civilian portrait. Exc. 1,000.
- 20 Rare figural matchsafe in the form of a White Mountain Refrigerator - "The Chest with the Chill in It", Maine Mfg Co, Nashua NH. Silvered, exc. 450.
- 21 Beautiful gold quartz man's ring (it fits me perfectly). Four triangular segments in rose gold setting, 19th century. 675.
- 22 Ultra rare die for making a mid 19th century embossed cameo card. Heavy brass 3¼ X 2¼, large 12-point buck standing in brush. "W Duncan - Dealer in Guns, Rifles, Pistols, All Kinds of Sporting Apparatus - Hampshire St, Quincy Ill". Engraved by A & G McClement, Phila. The only cameo card die I've ever seen. 1,000.
- 23 Rare 2½ iridescent blue/gold art glass medallion in brass rim. Eagle, Liberty Bell, sunrise over ocean "VICTORY 1918". Reverse etched "Louis C Tiffany Favrite". I sold one of these over 25 years ago, and this is only the second I've seen since then. 975.
- 24 1885 Morgan silver dollar counterstamped "COLT U.S." with initials RAC, DFC and HN. The initials are likely proof or inspectors marks. XF 200.
- 25 Superb 14K gold & gold quartz matchsafe by Shreve, San Francisco. Large 1½ oval slab of quartz with loads of gold, surrounded by bold scroll engraving. Reverse with inset diamond & monogram. 5,500.
- 26 Beautiful 2½ sulphide purpleweight showing Napoleon's head reclining on funeral bier. Probably Baccarat, 1820's. Pristine 600.
- 27 I really like this. 5¼ sterling silver cigar cutter in design of Indian lance, using a genuine stone arrowhead for point. Silver simulates the rawhide wrap of real lance. 950.
- 28 The nicest War of 1812 snuffbox I've had in years, made all the more special because it's double sided. 3½ papier mache, front "Oliver H Perry Esq of the United States Navy". Reverse with Victory - Lake Erie, 8 lines of text describe battle. Gorgeous condition, just a couple teensy nicks. 2,000.
- 29 The best reference available on early American political and patriotic ceramics. "Anglo-American ceramics - Transfer Printed Creamware and Pearlware for the American Market 1760-1860", by David & Linda Arman. Over 1000 items inc. hundreds from my own collection. Published privately in 1998, never available in bookstores. David Arman was my best friend. He died several years ago & I recently bought the remaining supply of books from his widow. Previously sold at $95. Now offered postpaid for 50.
- 30 Scarce 45mm (1½) silver medal - The United Provinces (Holland) receives John Adams as Envoy of the United States, April 19, 1782. Allegorical figures of Holland and America shaking hands, the latter's foot on a chained lion (England). Reverse a unicorn (England) with broken horn, a crown around his neck. Betts #603. Choice AU. An example in the same condition sold for $4,600 in Part XIV of the monumental collection of John Ford (May 2006). I purchased this in 1985 at the Bowers & Merena sale of the Murray, Swope, Young and Van Ormer Collections. It's been hiding in my safe for over 20 years. Original lot tag included. 3,500.
- 31 1½ silver(ed) shell pinback badge. Profile Lincoln "Emancipation Jan 1 1863". This is a very rare piece. I hadn't seen one for many years, but surprisingly enough two examples appeared in the past year in mail auction catalogs of my competitors. I BOUGHT BOTH OF THEM! Pristine 4,350.
- 32 Large 1½ pinback ferrotype that matches the set issued for all four 1860 Presidential candidates - there is also one for Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, who visited the US in 1860. This one depicts a Japanese dignitary in formal robes, holding a sword, seated at a small table. In all likelihood he is an ambassador or emissary who came to the US. Image taken from painting, bright & pristine. 350.
- 33 Exceedingly rare solid gold medal for the 1929 world circumnavigation of the Graf Zeppelin. Conjoined portraits Zeppelin, Eckener, Durr. Reverse globe from north pole vantage point showing principal cities visited. This medal is quite common in silver, but I have never seen another in gold. Uncirculated. 750.
- 34-35 Two of the rarest political medals I have had the opportunity to offer in the past 25 years
- 34 William Henry Harrison 1840-22, the general shown on horseback "9th President of the United States". Reverse Capitol "Inauguration Medal - Capitol - March 4 1841". White metal, F-VF with nice surfaces (a few small nicks and marks of course). The only other example I've seen was a significantly corroded piece sold by PCAC in 2002. 1,750.
- 35 Excessively rare Jackson AJ 1828-7, "Andrew Jackson", equestrian portrait, sword raised. Reverse eagle "The Advocate of the American System". Choice XF except for a bit of light tinpest by the horse's front legs and in the field between Jackson's head and that of the horse. 1,950.
- 36 Very rare embossed brass shell, portraits Polk/Dallas. "Friend of Equal Rights - Young Hickory - Dallas & Victory". Couple teensy little dings, VF+, Sullivan JP 1844-6. 1,750.
- 37 Zachary Taylor shell, portrait, General Taylor Never Surrenders, list of battles. ZT 1848-19. Choice lustrous XF-AU. 1,200.
- 38 Unusual ferrotype identical in style to the common 1860 political varieties. Jugate portraits Victoria and Albert, names above. Reverse ferro Prince of Wales - who visited the US in 1860. Bright, near mint. 325.
- 39 No doubt unique early American counterstamp. Rectangular cartouche with "S Drowne" in script, stamped on worn 1785 Nova Constellatio copper. I bought this at the 1990 Chris Schenkel sale (lot 4121, tag included). At the time I suspected it was the stamp of Shem Drowne, the renowned Boston metalsmith who made the grasshopper weathervane for Faneuil Hall. Mr. Drowne died in 1774, but his son Thomas continued his work. The attribution of the stamp is debatable unless a known mark of Shem Drowne is identified. 600.
- 40 Scarce 1794 large cent, known as the "Head of 1795". Nice fine or better, listed in current Coin Values at $1,000 in F-12. 850.

Quotes from Bryan and Blaine on evils of gold standard. 1½ wht. met, F-VF with a few dings. Not in Schornstein. 350.

- 69 John Brown "Slavery the Sum of All Villainies - Resistance to Tyranny is Obedience to God". Reverse with him on gallows. Bronzed wht met XF. 125.
- 70 Have you ever seen a merchants counterstamp on a political token? Zachary Taylor 1848-17. Stamped in circular punch "R Flanagan 112 N 6th St." This is from Philadelphia, where Flanagan ran a hotel and bar at this address. 450.

In the French/Gingerich sale one of these with minor foxing and a celluloid cut sold for $1,380. A number of people have commented that they haven't seen Patti in the last couple of catalogs. If you've forgotten her (not likely!) - here's a reminder

Patti and Cree are selling constantly on Ebay, using the names "ladystark" and "cree-baby".

They are offering a wide range of collectibles & historical material, for the most part moderately priced items in the $25 - $500 range. In addition to the major categories offered in our catalogs (political, photography, military, Old West) they will be concentrating on advertising, breweriana, toys, character collectibles, cowboy heroes, worlds fairs, sports, small English ceramics, textiles, police, fire fighting, autographs, and many other interesting items from the mid 19th to mid 20th centuries.

They are having fun poking into boxes that haven't been opened for 15 - 20 years!
